Inmarsat Vice President Captain Mary McMillan visits IMSO

The Director General of IMSO, Captain Moin Ahmed, was most pleased to welcome the Vice President, Safety and Operational Services at Inmarsat Aviation Captain Mary McMillan to IMSO today.

Even though it was a whistle-stop visit, Captain McMillan was warmly met by the Director General and all staff at the Directorate. She expressed her satisfaction with the discussions that took place and was enthusiastic about the benefits to be had in the joining of forces in the maritime and aviation spaces, to serve in the wider interests of world safety.
